

The idea that stations are being forced to show a documentary defaming John Kerry when never in a million years could Fahrenheit 9/11, a critique of the Bush administration be aired on national television! That is softly dictating what we can be exposed to in a totally unfair, money hungry way. This is precisely the job of the FCC, to investigate this!